

The Goose Valley Golf Club

Newsletter May 2021

Hi there from the Goose Valley Team

We had a very successful Club Championships which was sponsored by TCGE and Satin Global Financial Services, with a great field of 88 players. It was so good to see a full clubhouse watching the playoff for the A Division – the atmosphere spurred the guys on down the 18th with a great finish of 3 birdies out of the final 4 players as well as a birdie and an almost “chip in” during the playoff hole. We could not have asked for a better ending to the day – well done to all of the players.

The Friday Meat Comp is back on and the meat will be brought in via The Verandah who will ensure that it is sanitized and kept in a cold room over night to ensure all Covid Safety protocols. Please note that in order to win a prize, you need to be at the prize giving OR announce your apology with the pro shop. We encourage all players to stay for the prize giving, create an atmosphere and support the bar.

The golf shop will be running a comp every Saturday (tee times between 9:00 and 12:00), depending on the number of entries. We need a minimum of 16 confirmed entrants to hold a comp. The format will be an individual stableford (every Saturday) and the winners will have the money loaded onto their accounts. Saturday comp fee is R40 – all monies paid out to the winners.

Our two handicap league teams got off to a perfect start, with both of them winning their opening games against Plett CC – Goose 1 winning 3.5 to 2.5 and Goose 2 winning 5.5 to 0.5 – Keep it up Guys!

Goose Valley will be the host course for the Windhoek Pairs Regional Finals for this current Season 6 of the WLIP event. Pairs qualifying for the regionals will have the best advantage by playing at home, to win the finals and qualify for the all expenses paid trip to Devonvale in The Cape. Should you win at Devonvale, you are in for another all-expenses trip to Spain for the World Finals. We encourage everyone to take part over the next few months in the qualifying events – the more players that enter, the more pairs go through to finals. For only R100 you get 2 x sponsored golf balls and should you qualify, there is the “home advantage” to win a possible world trip to Spain worth over R80 000. Pick your partners wisely and enter the next Windhoek Pairs event on Saturday 15 May, Tee Times 09:00 to 11:30 – we need 60 golfers to have 2 pairs qualify...

WE REMIND ALL GOLFERS TO PLEASE:

Keep up with the players ahead of you; Tend to your pitch marks on the greens and to repair all divots; Be watchful for snakes;
Not to consume the recycled effluent water that is used on the course

TOUCHING LIVES
THROUGH THE GAME OF GOLF

I'm sure a lot of you remember Garrick Higgo, a member of Goose who spent many hours on our range. He has now won his 2nd European Tour event after his recent win at the Gran Canaria Open – 21 years old from Plett and the last win was worth R3.9 Million – Hard work pays off

Another South African duo, Charl Schwartzel and Louis Oosthuizen kept the SA flag flying on the PGA Tour, losing in a playoff to the Aussie team in the Zurich Classic. 2nd Place is not bad when you bank $436 600 each.

Thinking about new equipment?

If you are thinking about new clubs or anything equipment related, I encourage you to come and have a chat to me. With many years of club fitting experience, I will gladly offer advice and remember, our Pro Shop can get you anything you want as far as golf equipment goes.....all at member prices!!

From the Captain

John Wilschut

Letter from the captain's desk:

I would like to thank Nici and the Proshop and Riaan from THE VERANDA to help us to get the meat comp back on Friday afternoons.

We held our first comp on Friday 23 and it was a great success. Thanks to Daniel who did the prize giving and Riaan who supplied the meat. The first winner in the new Covid era was Terry Bloom - well done!

I need to add that this is an attendance prize giving as this is a win-win for all involved including the players.

With regards the league teams , both teams won their respective games playing against plett country club at Knysna golf club.
